Summer School 2007

Summer School Principal Scott Edwards presented a report on the 2007 summer school program. The focus of the program was remedial in nature with students being provided the opportunity to work on skill sets that would be a catalyst for student success in the upcoming year. A survey of parents indicated they were in favour of the new hours of the operation which were changed from two hours per day for three weeks to three hours per day for two weeks. One hundred and forty-eight students participated in the summer school. Appreciation was extended to staff for their efforts in making the program a great success.
