Vice-Chair ~ Gena Lowe

- a) Pancake Breakfast, Nesters donating supplies, lots of volunteers signed up
- b) Turkey Bucks and CT Money - collecting until the 2nd week of December

Secretary - KaraLee Cave

- a) Cookie Dough Update - once all dough is sold, there will be a profit of about $1000

School Trustee Report - Connie Denesiuk (absent - report read)

- District has hired a new acting secretary treasurer. Ron Shongrunden has been with district for a number of years, formerly was assistant secretary treasurer.
- board meeting this Monday at 6:30, public welcome
- district to undergo a Special Education audit early in new year. District welcomes the audit from Attorney General's Dept. Always helpful to have external eyes to take a look at our systems and structures.

Principal's Report - Paula Reay

- Thanks to PAC for movie night with bookfair; Mrs Jang is thrilled with book sales
- Carol Stathers started Health Fair about 5 years ago...now looking for someone in each school to be a "Heart Coordinator" and oversee and organize the event.
- Choir did a wonderful job at Light-Up.
- Mrs Jang found sound system for $500 plus taxes. Voted on last meeting and passed. To go ahead with this system.
- Art Supplies requested by teachers are in the works.

- Olympics coming ~ school will be involved. Summerland will be having an "event" on Jan 25th to get the community excited for coming of the torch.
More tba
- Winter activities coming, will be organizing house leagues for intramurals starting next week. Mrs Jang will continue with guitar, Mrs Rose will be doing basketball with 4's and 5's.
- Prior to the torch coming, there will be a school wide Olympic "centers"
- Requesting $300 to help pay for school trip to symphony. Total is $900, $300 grant, school and PAC to split the remaining $600. Jenny motioned, Corinne 2nd, motion passed.
- A grant has been applied for to top off the drums purchase.
- Budget is uncertain for next year, cuts may continue.
- Next meeting confirmed for January 7th.

New Business

Corinne Mercer - Popcorn Maker

- This has been a topic brought up many times at meetings. Will look into makers and present at next meeting. Could be used for many functions.

KaraLee Cave - Lunchtime Supervisors

- Concerned with lack of adult supervision at lunchtime. Suggested to bring this up at next meeting when Connie is there and express concerns.
