

Richard Morgan, a custodian in School District No. 67 was named as a finalist in the inaugural Premier's Awards for Excellence in Education – Outstanding Support Staff.

He was nominated by Doug Gorcak, Director of Facilities, who coordinated letters of support from Penticton Secondary School and KVR Middle School. Mr. Morgan, Mr. Gorcak and Ms. Hyer, Superintendent, attended the awards ceremony at Government House in Victoria on October 5, 2018.

While Mr. Morgan did not win the award, he was recognized as one of three finalists and we are very proud of the work that he does in our School District.

Videos were created on each of the finalists – you can find the link below:
