

June 8th - 12th

Welcome to Ms. Robertson's Library (online ideas of course!)

Please return overdue books to the blue bin at the school - thanks!

Have you found a book to read???

Currently I'm reading Gregor the Overlander, This is going to be a good series!

Keep Listening to this!

What can you make?

Do you know this author?

Here are the next few links for the sections of James and the Giant Peach from the Roald Dahl YouTube channel.

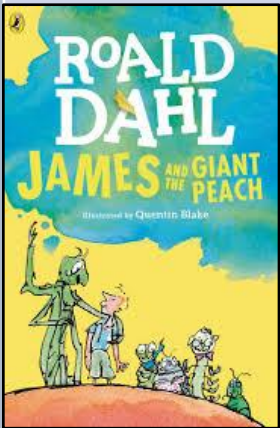

Check out these links:

Find a cardboard box and build something! What can you build? Can you create a structure that will keep a ball moving for at least 60 seconds? A marble maze? Or perhaps for a tennis ball or baseball?

Do you know Jarrett J. Krosoczka? He is the author of Lunch Lady, and the Jedi Academy plus many others! Here is a funny read aloud of one of his stories, Punk Farm. Enjoy!
